Have you ever done Agility? Played with your dog? Ball? walked? swam? Hide & Find me? Anything your dog enjoys is fun for you both. The bonding that takes place is so rewarding. that is the main reason we have dog's. We have that special friend. The joy they bring to us is very rewarding and fulfills a part of us and the dog. When they learn new things that are fun and they know you're a part of that, makes the bonding that much better. That is Rally O. You both learn new commands, many you can do inside when it becomes snowy, icy, or downright freezing. Sense the last rally Class, one of the fun things I've been doing with Dante is to throw in a rally command as we're walking or in the house. Out in the backyard. Some are the ones he is good at, some are the new ones he has yet to learn. Only one or 2 at a time, and when he gets it, the joy he shows is worth every effort. He pays much more attention to me now because he's waiting for something fun to happen.

Every dog needs to feel secure, important, needed and the need to please is something we should be able and willing to do. Rally is a fun dog sport that will make your dog feel smart, and want to learn more.

No dog is perfect. Competition is low key, yet fun. prizes given and lots of laughs. A Perfect way to have a new kind of fun with our dog's.

Please feel free to call Diann about this class or any others you have questions about.

*****

It will be winter in no time. Most dog's love the snow. Be careful with the ice on their paws, ice balls can form between their toes and be sharp enough to cut.

Putting a layer of Vaseline, mushers secret, bag balm, or other similar things can help. Many dog's need to get used to the cold & snow before letting them play out for a long time. Even if your dog doesn't want to come in, don't think it's fine. Your dog may be having so much fun that he/she doesn't even know they can get frostbite. bring them in every so often and check them, their paws, and get any ice balls off.

HOW TO KEEP YOUR DOG;S BUSY

BASIC CLASS: WED. 9-4 @ 6 P.M.

7 week class @ $85.00. Register now:
learn all the basic skills needed

Some of the commands:

COME: SIT: DOWN: STAY: WALKING: HEEL: ATTENTION

THIS WINTER:

Here are a few links to some sites. It doesn't have to be winter. Several of these things I do now. Dog's do get bored. A bored dog can be destructive, grumpy, tends to wander off more. A dog running through the snow is great exercise for their muscles. no need to wear yourself out. With not much effort you can keep your dog in shape during the winter. Can always give them some Rally O games to play.

It's recommended that each dog get their CGC every 2 years. Puppies may take the CGC. What an honor!!!! the AKC realizes that dog behavior is likely to change, so if your dog has passed, but it's been more than 2 years, you might want to test again. Having that CGC certificate is a great title to be proud of.
